

How To Access Free Conference Call.com

We are using a conference call service called FreeConferenceCall.com. With this service, I do not send out invitations for each of the scheduled meetings. The details for accessing the service will not change. So please save this information somewhere secure so that you have it as needed.

With this service you have the option to access the meeting by

1. Call in by telephone
2. Login by internet utilizing a computer, smartphone or tablet.

If you are calling in from the USA or Canada, the phone number is
Dial-In Number: 515.739.6125
Access Code: 248953

If you are login by computer,
On Line Meeting Link: <https://join.freeconferencecall.com/johnnypowell>
Online Meeting ID: johnnypowell

When you login with voice-over-internet audio by computer, smartphone or tablet, you have two choices:

1. Create a free account and download the app
2. Login via the website using Firefox 15 or Chrome 16 or later. (click icon in toolbar).

This should work on PCs, Macs, iOS, and Android phones or tablets.

When you login in by computer, it allows me to share resources via screen sharing as well as provide you with the option of text chat during the meeting.
